Christian mortalism incorporates the belief that the human soul is not naturally immortal; and may include the belief that the soul is uncomprehending during the time between bodily death and resurrection, known as the intermediate state. "Soul sleep" is an often pejorative term so the more neutral term "materialism" was also used in the nineteenth century, and "Christian mortalism" since the ...

Ancient philosophical theories of soul are in many respects sensitive to ways of speaking and thinking about the soul [psuchh] that are not specifically philosophical or theoretical. We therefore begin with what the word "soul" meant to speakers of Classical Greek, and what it would have been natural to think about and associate with the soul.
