Her eyes lift to meet his slowly, and after a few seconds of eye contact he smiles the most sincere, apologetic smile that a vampire with fangs can pull off. Her own lip quirks up in response and that is enough to prompt one of his blue-tinted hands into patting her head, soft enough to be friendly but hard enough to feel the strands of hair beneath the fabric shift.

Eyes Turned Skywards, Post #7: Ten days after Skylab's launch, another launch day dawned cold and clear at the Cape after a late January cold snap and overnight freeze. While those at the Cape were confident that the cold snap and freeze would not hamper their ability to conduct launch operations, flight controllers in Houston were less sure.
