Describing the actual human condition as a "Fall"™ assumes that there was a time before sin when human experience was different from what it is now. The Genesis story, however, is not a description of two different historical conditions. It is a theological narrative. It is viewing reality from an inspired perspective.

human mind. But there is now growing evidence, particularly from the United States, that pharmaceuticals are being both prescribed and illegally consumed by university students to maintain supernormal levels of concentration in the run-up to exams, with the suggestion that this trend will eventually encompass younger children.
