It seems that Rowan owes Arline a debt of gratitude for years before she also saved some of his relatives from hanging for a crime they didn't commit as well. Once back home, Arline and Lilly must recover from the abuse inflicted by Garrick but then Arline slowly wins Rowan over. Garrick, however, is not to be denied his revenge.

Rowan's Lady (2013) About book: really liked this one--it may be my new favorite of this series. I really love the way this author portrays her characters--great alpha male leads, strong heroines, exciting villains. It had everything I have come to expect from reading one of Ms. Tisdale's books, including an actual romance, and good action/suspense.

Believe? "I Trust, I Put My Confidence In" This issue of trust is relevant, for when we say "I believe in God the Father Almighty," is not simply an acknowledgement about your opinion on the nature of God, but meant to be a proclamation of trust in God. In the 9th chapter of John, when Jesus asks the formerly blind man if he "believes" in the Son of
